Artwork

For the purposes of this prize, an 'artists' book' is loosely defined by the following:

While artists' books can take many forms, there are a few elements that are common across the practice. Understanding a book as an artwork invites a reflection on the properties of the book form itself. Much like any act of reading, an artists' book is a physical experience that allows a connection with the medium that – while social in its implications – is individual and personal. The artists' book invites us to hold it and turn through its pages. Whether the contents are visually or linguistically based (often a mix of both), physically moving through an artwork implicates notions of sequence, repetition, juxtaposition, and duration. The interplay of text and images, as well as considerations of printing process and the design of the book, allows for many exciting possibilities within narrative, media, and meaning that are specific to the artists' book alone. (Printed Matter Inc.)

There is no theme for the LIBRIS AWARDS.

If you are unsure, please contact ASM for more information.

Entry fee is $40 (including GST) per work. Entry fee is non-refundable and covers the cost of production of catalogue and other marketing materials. Any application not accompanied by the appropriate entry fee will be ineligible.

Payment may be made securely online (preferred) or via cash payment in person to Council accompanied by a hard copy entry form. Contact the gallery directly for hard copy forms.

Council will not store any payment details, nor share your information with a third party. A tax invoice/receipt will be issued for each entry.
